

Housing Offices Close for One Day

Newfoundland Labrador Housing (Housing) offices throughout the province will be closed on Monday, March 31, 2008.

We are installing new computer software systems to replace existing technology which is becoming obsolete and no longer meets the organization's needs. The new systems will enable Housing to provide enhanced client service.

While we do not anticipate any service disruptions, please bear with us if you experience longer than normal responses when contacting Housing on Tuesday morning. We thank you for your understanding during this transition.

Any emergency maintenance calls placed over the weekend will continue to go through the regular after-hours phone service.

Also, please note:
