Public Advisory: Newfoundland and Labrador Housing Corporation Resumes Regular Programs and Services

Effective 8:00 a.m. Monday, March 29, 2021, Newfoundland and Labrador Housing Corporation (NLHC) will resume regular programs and services.

Online and telephone access to programs and services by the general public remains the preferred method to support services; however, for more urgent matters, regional offices will continue to schedule office visits for clients by appointment only. To schedule an appointment, or general inquiries related to NLHC services, please call your local regional office.
